

Master of Ceremonies

The invisible wedding planner behind the scenes

You have a lot of helping hands in your wedding preparation, but want to tackle your big day relaxed and celebrate with all guests, your mothers, friends and groomsmen? We leave nothing to chance.

The package includes the following services:

- Preliminary discussion with the bridal couple, during which the procedures and service provider information and documents are handed over
- Creation of a detailed schedule of the wedding day and passing on to the service providers
- Guest Management: Coordinating the mail, games, surprises and speeches of your guests
- Contact, briefing and inspection of service providers
- any trouble shooting
- Check the decoration works
- On request, we are there for you the day after, and are the fairies while you are still in the springs

This package can be extended with individual services and we accompany you in other preparations, or to other packages such as the DIY package, the package Location Search and the package Deco & Design.
